

Global Results

1 Inclusive Economic Development

It focuses on the consolidation of profitable and sustainable business models, creating deep roots and creating conditions for decent living and decent work in local populations.

10.370
People linked to beneficiary producer families with the objective of promoting sustainable productive models, access to markets and / or land tenure

8.798
Families linked to productive family or associative units with the objective of improving their income

2.626
Families linked to community tourism, bio-commerce and / or environmental products and services

3.875
Hectares of agricultural and pastoral systems incorporating sustainable production practices

1.397
Families linked to community tourism, bio-commerce and / or environmental products and services

4.227
People receiving technical training to promote sustainable production, entrepreneurship, and labor inclusion

2 Infrastructure, goods and services

Within the framework of the Integral Rural Reform, and as support for the Development Programs with Territorial Approach (PDET) implementation, a significant part of the project have incorporated the construction of infrastructure and public goods within their interventions,

130
Community works built and rehabilitated

7.332
People improving their access to goods and / or services from municipalities that were strongly affected by the armed conflict

3 Market access

Producers and their organizations are being supported in accessing certification processes and in complying with good practices and quality standards, according to demand and market demands

2.873
People linked to grassroots organizations, SMEs, and / or productive units participating in established business models

217
Productive units and / or associations accessing quality and collective brand health certifications

4 Food security

Promote a culture of self-consumption and productive diversification, through initiatives to improve family farming and the commercialization of surpluses

3.196
Families producing food for self-consumption and local marketing through agroecological practices

5 Institutional strengthening

It focuses on actions related to territorial planning, risk management, improvement of skills in officials and technical teams, methodological and technology transfer, participation and social dialogue, and institutional coordination

68
Territorial entities and traditional authorities receiving technical support in their planning and intervention processes

8
Local and territorial participation spaces receiving technical assistance and / or support

6 Organizational strengthening

It focuses on processes of capitalization and consolidation of business models. Technical support and training is provided to social demands and to defend human rights. The Third Party Financial Support (AFT) instrument allows access of rural organizations based on resources, and it constitutes a central strategy.

183
Grassroots organizations, SMEs or productive units accompanied in the strengthening of their productive, administrative and / or commercial processes

41
Organizations and / or local entities developing their own projects through Financial Support to Third Parties (AFT)

7 Citizen participation and political impact

Support for the process of democratic expansion and participatory planning involving the populations most affected by violence in planning and decision-making, mainly at the municipal and regional levels. Support for organized civil society is a key element to improve the democratic conditions of the territories and favor dialogue between local populations, social movements and institutionality.

2.280
People assisted in their citizen participation and political impact processes

34
Networks, community organizations and citizen platforms technically or financially supported to improve their participation and impact

8 Reincorporation

Focused on supporting the processes of collective reintegration and integration with surrounding communities, so the main units of analysis and work are the Territorial Training and Reintegration Spaces (ETCR) and the cooperatives created in these areas.

734
FARC EP ex-combatants participating in collective and / or solidarity economy projects

503
FARC EP ex-combatants receiving technical training for labor inclusion and / or entrepreneurship

513
FARC-EP ex-combatants receiving training and advice on cooperativism, business management and solidarity economy

9 Rooting and territorial identity

It is about promoting relevant educational models to the territory, to the endogenous potentials, to the environmental and social problems, and to their cultural and ethnic diversity. Within the training processes with a territorial approach and linking new generations, a wide range of initiatives are promoted to work with young people, especially those located in rural areas and belonging to communities affected by the armed conflict.

53

Rural schools with adapted programs and implementing training strategies with a territorial approach

14.366

Children and youth participating in initiatives for peace building, rural development and roots strengthening

11 Environment

Intervention in some of the municipalities and regions most affected by deforestation and increasing environmental effects that have occurred after the signing of the Peace Agreements and in departments where economic dynamics present greater risks in terms of sustainability and preservation of local ecosystems and water sources

15.859

Hectares of terrestrial and aquatic ecosystems recovered and / or protected

4.408

People implementing good environmental practices and climate change mitigation strategies in their land and / or activities

10 Training and education for peace

The Peace Accords explicitly mention the importance of strengthening community radios and their coverage and capacity to disseminate information, as an expression of civil society. It also mentions community radios as the only means of communication present in many rural communities and in the regions most affected by violence and armed conflict.

237

People linked to community media, trained in social communication, peace building and / or gender inclusion

44

Community radios in municipalities affected by conflict increasing content production for peace building and reconciliation

12 Knowledge management

Knowledge exchange between Colombia and Europe represents one of the main added values of the EU's international cooperation actions, and the horizontal dialogue between territorial actors is identified as one of the most effective strategies for transferring methodologies, sharing good practices and promoting new ways of leadership and intervention in territory.

311

People participating in technical tours and / or experience exchanges to strengthen their economic actions and / or their peace building processes

6.760

People participating in forums and / or dialogue spaces for peace building, reconciliation and strengthening of the social fabric

THE EUROPEAN FUND FOR PEACE IN NUMBERS

Report N. 4 As of December 15th, 2019

As a global result, the European Fund for Peace already has a fully functioning monitoring and evaluation system with the capacity to collect, analyze, and systematize progress on a quarterly basis, as an exercise in transparency and accountability, and as action to decision making, results dissemination, and knowledge management. The indicators in their different categories are described below.

